A few helpfull Meditations concerning the use of the following Prayer.

Teach me O God, by vertue of thine own most free and infallible promises, in Jesus Christ my reconciled God, my Heavenly Father, my alone all-sufficient helper, my hearts desire is, that as thou hast pleased most graciously in some measure to reveal unto me thy promised favours for this and a better life, thou wilt also make me fit to receive them, by working, reforing, continuing, encreasing in me every one of those infallible markes, and every circumstance of each, whereby I may be fully assured that all thy Promises all unto them; thou hast in thy counsell, Sonne, Sacraments and by thy Spirit sealed them; experiance in all Ages further testifies thy keeping of them; thine in greatest extremity have made and ever make them their stay chiefly. Thou who promisest are goodnesse it self, most willing, able and true to performe them; thou who promisest are Omnipresent, omniscient, most wise, holy, just, abhorrest, detestest the iniquity, lovest, blessest the just, decreest, willest, workest all for the glorifying of thy self according to thy word, and by thine own especiall providence ordainest and ordainest all things in most remarkable manner; to manifest unto us thine own that thou ever hast been, are, and ever wilt be theirs for good, according to each part of thy immutable truth whatsoever especially thou who promisest art unchangeable in thy nature, attributes, promises, and were not God

if

thou shouldst not exactly and fully keep thy word. It being thus as it is thus, I can say no more, most humbly and earnestly beseech and urge thee, let me in all places, upon all occasions, in every present and future pressing, inward and outward necessity, find favour in thy sight and help at thy hands, according to every one of thy most precious promises; although I be most unworthy and most the worst of evills in all extremity; O yea then, even when I am most helpless, and from all never so impossible, most especially my Lord, my Gods, my Father, my helper, be pleased for thine own sake, in thy Christ my Jesus, as thou hast here plainly, expressly, and plentifully promised, cause me to know, remember, be ashamed of, loath myselfe for, be confounded in my sins for my sins, &c. Thus turning these words into a prayer, will not there be found a most warrantable [illegible]

forsake

table, acceptable, and prevailing way of praying: and so I conceive (without a thought of giving offence, or any way limiting Christian liberty) one may take one chief head or more at a time, or such places as most especially concerne his especiall occasions, some one time, and some another, and turn them into prayers; so speaking to God in his own Language, in reverend, affectionate, distinct and earnest manner with a judicious believing heart, will wonderfully direct, cherish, settle and further us: only let us in well doing wait upon God in the lawfull use of all good means for the obtaining of whatsoever grace or blessing we want or desire, and it cannot be but we shall have help one way or other in every necessity, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it, all his attributes lie at the stake to do it, what can hinder it? Esa. 40. 5. Let me humbly affirm it,

& my self have always found it all glory to my God alone.

And look what promise he doth make his household to defend,
For just and true, they shall it take all times without an end.

in trust it I accord,

the promise of the Lord.

XXVIII
UNDENIABLE
OF THE
Infallibility of the PROMISES.

First, all the promises are freely made unto us by the Lord notwithstanding our unmeasurable & great unworthinesse.

Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy names sake which yee have prophaned. Ezek. 36. 22.

The Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the Promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that beleeve, Gal. 3. 22.

I will love them freely, Hos. 14. 4.
Second: the promises, belong to us as well as to our forefathers.

For the promise is unto you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call, Act. 2. 39.

That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs and of the same body, and partakers of his Promises in Christ by the Gospel, Eph. 3. 6.

Therefore it is of faith that it might be by grace, to the end the promise might bee sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham the father of us all, Rom. 4. 16.

That promise made to Iosua, 1. 5. I will not faile thee nor forsake thee, applyed by Paul, Heb. 13. 5, 6.

Thirdly, all the promises are called one, and as if they were but one, most sure to be performed by the Lord.

Wherein God willing more a-bunundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise; Heb. 6. 17.

That the promise of Jesus Christ might be given, Gal. 3. 22.

Fourth: the promises were made before the world was, yet hitherto God never failed any one word of his goodnesse.

In hope of eternall life which God that cannot lie promised before the world began, Tit. 1. 2.

Yee know in all your hearts and in all your soules, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof, Iosh. 23. 14. & 21. 45.

Fifth: we have the writings of God for them, they are upon record in Scripture, and shall we murmur when we have Gods own hand to shew for it?

I the Lord speak righteousnesse, I declare things that are, Isa. 45. 19.

Thy word is true from the beginning sing, and every one of thy righteous judgements endureth for ever.

ought. Ps. 119. 160.

For the word of the Lord is right,
and all his works are done in truth.
Ps. 33. 4.

The Lord hath bound himself
by his oath to perform his promise unto us.

The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to passe, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand. Isa. 14. 24.
I have sworn by my self, the word is gone out of my mouth in righte-ousnesse, and shall not returne. Isa.
45. 23.

God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of Promise the immutability of his counsell, confirmed it by oath, Heb. 6. 17.

Wherein we know the word preached unto us by Gods ambassadors, sent of purpose to us. Commandements of

Lamb: the graces of Gods Spirit powred out upon us are our assurance that he will not hold from us our regall privileges, viz. his promises.

Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God, who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts, 2 Cor. 1. 21, 22.

In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Eph. 1. 13.

Though the Law cannot disanull the promise.

For if they which are of the Law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect, Rom. 4. 14.

And this I say that the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was foure hundred and thirty yeares after, cannot disannull, that it should make the promise of none effect: for if the inheritance bee of the Law, it is no more of promise, but God gave it to Abraham by promise, Gal. 3. 17, 18.

Twelfth: the Lord hath sealed his promises unto us.

1. In his counsel, which book the Lion and the Lamb now hath opened.

The Lion of the Tribe of Iudah, the root of David hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof: thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the seals thereof, Rev. 5. 5, 9.

2. In his Sonne, God made sure when he sent out Christ, he sealed his commission in all things that concerned the happinesse of his people.

Him hath God the father sealed, Joh. 6. 27.

3. By his Spirit, this is Gods privy Seal, and thus are all beleevers said to be sealed with the spirit of promise.

In whom also after that ye beleeved, ye were sealed with that holy spirit of promise, Eph. 1. 13.

4. In the Sacraments, which are given us as Gods broad seal, and outward tokens and pledges to confirme our faith in the promises.

And he received the sign of circumcision a seal of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised, Rom. 4. 11.

Thirdly: we have the experience of all ages, that whatsoever God promised, the same he hath also most certainly performed.

I have declared the former things from the beginning, and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them: I did them suddenly, and they came to passe, Isa. 48. 3.

(n) And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place, and suddainly there came a sound from Heaven, as of a rushing mighty winde, &c. Acts 2. 1, 2, 3.

(o) And behold I send the Promise of my Father upon you: but tarry yee in the City of Jerusalem untill yee be indued with power from on high, Luk. 24. 49.

According to all that hee promised there hath not failed one word, of all his Promises which hee promised, 1 King. 8. 56.

Seventhly, the Patriarchs imbraced the Promises as the chief stay of their lives in their pilgrimage on Earth.

And were perswaded of them, and imbraced them, and confessed that they they were strangers and pilgrims on the Earth, Heb. 11. 13.

Fifteenth: the LORD who promiseth is the fountain of all goodness, therefore all good promised may, must and ought to be expected from him.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and commeth down from the father of lights, James 1. 17.

There is none good but one, that is, God, Mat. 19. 17.

Thou art good and doest good, Psal. 119. 68.

Sixteenth: the Lord is most willing to give us the good things that he hath promised.

Come yee, buy and eat, yea come, buy Wine and Milk without money and without price, Isa. 55. 1.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, but is long suffering to us ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance, 2 Pet. 3. 9.

I will give to him that is athirst of the fountain of the waters of life freely, Rev. 21. 6.

Seventeenth: the Lord is Almighty, therefore must able to perform all that he hath promised, whatsoever appeareth I am the Almighty God, Gen. 17. Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty, Rev. I will work, and who shall let it? Isa. 43. 13.

Being fully perswaded, that what he had promised he was also able to perform, Rom. 4. 21.

Eighteenth: the Lord is most true and faithfull to perform his word. He is the Rock, his Work is perfect: for all his wayes are judgement, a God of truth and without iniquity, just and righteous is he, Deut. 32. 4. The Lord thy God, he is God, the faithfull God, which keepeth Covenant, Deut. 7. 9.

Faithfull is he that calleth you, who also will do it, 1 Thess. 5. 24. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering, for he is faithfull that promised, Heb. 10. 23.

Nineteenth: the Lord who promiseth is omnipresent. Therefore no place excludes our assurance of his performing his word unto us: but wheresoever we are, we may expect and must rely upon his promises. Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places, that I shall not see him, saith the Lord? Do not I fill Heaven and Earth, saith the Lord? Jer. 23. 23, 24.

The eyes of the Lord run to and fro through the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him, 2 Chron. 16. 9.

Twentieth: the Lord who promiseth is most wise, therefore through [illegible] sidereth, when, were, by what means, and in what manner, or how far it let us experimentally find the truth of his word, so that we may rest assured thereof, as shall be best for us, go all how it will with us.

Now unto the King eternall, immortall, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever, Amen, 1 Tim. 1. 17.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdome and knowledg of God, Rom. 11. 33.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, 2 Pet. 2. 9.

Twenty one: The Lord who promiseth, is omniscient. Knowing perfectly, in which how many and how far we stand in need of his help, to vouchsafe the same according to his word.

Great in counsell, and mighty in work, for thine eyes are open upon all the wayes of the sons of men, to give every one according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his his doings, Ier. 32.19.

The wayes of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and hee pondereth all his goings, Pro. 5.21.

Twenty two: The Lord who promiseth is most holy, therefore cannot doe a thing so contrary to his most holy nature, as to break his promise.

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts, Isa. 6.3. Rev. 3.7.

The Lord is righteous in all his wayes, and holy in all his workes, Psa. 145.17.

There is none holy as the Lord, 1 Sam. 2.2.

Thou art of purer eyes then to behold evill, and canst not look on iniquity, Hab. 1.13.

Twenty three: The Lord who promiseth is most just, and it is one especiall property of a just man to keep his promise.

Wilt thou condemn him that is most just? Iob 34.17.

To shew that the Lord is upright, he is my Rock, and there is no un-righrighteousnesse in him. Psal. 92. 15.

A just God and a Saviour, there is none beside me. Isa. 45. 21.
The just Lord is in the midst thereof, he will not do iniquity.
Zeph. 3. 5.
Answer four: The Lord abhorreth and destroyeth the wicked, but loveth and blesseth the just; how should he then be unjust himself in not keeping his word?
Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing, the Lord abhors the bloody and deceitful man. Psal. 5. 6.
Thou Lord wilt blesse the righteous, with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield. Ps. 5. 12.
The righteous Lord loveth righteousnesse, his countenance doth behold the upright. Ps. 11. 7.
Answer five: The Lord decreed, willeth, worketh all things for his own glory unto the setting forth whereof the faithfull performing of every one of his promises doth exceedingly extend, and from which he not possibly

forming any one of them would so far derogate, that all that is, or can be conceived, revealed or expressed concerning him were nothing, if he were not every wayes as good as his Word.

For of him, and through him and to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever, Rom. 11. 36.

The Lord hath made all things for himself, Pro. 16. 4.

Who worketh all things after the counsell of his own wil, Eph. 1. 11.

Thou art worthy O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created, Rev. 4. 11.

Twenty six. The Lord by his especiall and only providence ordaineth and ordereth all things in a most especiall remarkable manner to manifest to his own that he is, and ever will be their God for good according to his Word.

Now therefore be not grieved nor angry with your selves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life: God sent me before you, to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance, so now it was not you that sent me hither, but God, Gen. 45.5, 7, 8.

But as for you yee thought evill against me, but God meant it unto good, to bring to passe as it is this day, to save much people alive, Gen. 50.20.

And wee know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, Rom. 8.28.

Twenty seaven. The Lord who promiseth is unchangeable in his Nature, Attributes, and Promises, yea whatsoever he hath revealed himselfe to have been, the same he is, and ever will be to his own for good, which fully answereth all suppositions, objections, feares, and doubtings whatsoever, against the infallibility of the promises.

I am the Lord, I change not, Mal. 3. 6.

With whom is no variableneſſe, neither ſhadow of turning, Jam. 1. 17.

Jeſus Chriſt the ſame yeſterday, and to day, and for ever, Heb. 13. 8.

The gifts and calling of God are without repentance, Rom. 11. 29.

Even from everlaſting to everlaſting thou art God, Pſa. 90. 2.

I the Lord the firſt, and with the laſt, I am he, Iſa. 41. 4.

Twenty eight: and laſtly, the Lord were not God, if hee kept not his Word.

The ſtrength of Iſrael will not lie nor repent; for hee is not a man that he ſhould repent, 1 Sam. 15. 29.

God is not a man that he ſhould lie, neither the ſon of man that hee ſhould repent: hath he ſaid and ſhall he not doe it, or hath he ſpoken and ſhall he not make it good? Numb. 23. 19.

Hee

He abideth faithfull, hee cannot deny himselfe, 2 Tim. 2. 13.

In hope of eternal life which God that cannot lie promised before the world began, Tit. 1. 2.

Yee know it that no lie is of the truth, 1 Joh. 2. 21.

Thus far of the undeniable proof of the infallibility of the promises. Which being rightly understood, seriously considered, and soundly applyed, will mightily settle a true Christians heart, in and against the greatest calamities that can befall him.

Alas, for that day is great, so that none is like it, it is even the time of Iacobs trouble, but he shall be saved out of it, Ier. 30. 7.

Well, he that walketh in darkenesse and hath no light, let him trust in the name of the Lord, and stay upon his God, Isa. 50. 10.

And David was greatly distressed but he incouraged himselfe in the Lord his God, 1 Sam. 30. 6.

Therefore I will looke unto the Lord,

Lord, I will wait for the God of my salvation, my God will hear me. When I fall I shall rise, when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall bee a light unto me, Mich. 7. 7, 8.

He hath said he will never leave thee, nor forsake thee: so that wee may boldly say, the Lord is my helper, and I will not feare what man shall doe unto mee, Heb. 13. 5, 6.

Lord, with my soul have I desired thee, yea with my spirit within me I will seek the early, Isa. 26. 9.

Whom have I in Heaven but thee? and there is none upon Earth, that I desire beside thee, Psal. 73. 25.

As thou hast promised (my God) be with me: so will I be with thee. } Iosh. 1. 5.

To whom the Promises in Christ do assuredly belong.

Omitting all other, here are set down divers choice and infallible marks of uprightnesse of heart, out of which, lively justifying, saving faith in Christ, in whom and for whose sake alone, all the promises are our portion. The which whosoever can find in himself, may safely conclude he is in the favour of God, and shall be truly happy here and ever, according to all his promises contained in his most holy Word. Godlinesse is profitable unto all things having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come, 1 Tim. 4. 8.

The Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by the Faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that beleeve.

To whom the promises have no hope, but are without God in the World (m) Therefore I beseech and warne you (as I do mine own soule) to lay this seriously to heart (n) lest we miserably deceive our selves (o) and lose our labour (p) for this is certaine, if we dare to live in any sin (as without Repentance in stead of the promised blessings we may looke for the threatned vengeance: and whosoever cannot (or dare not such cost) rightly lay hold on the promised comforts, may justly expect the plagues according to the contrary) threatnings (q) This is a main point, and worthy our best

Could he be poore whose portion is Gods free and faithfull Promises?

Farewell to all; These, these I choose.

The

The ſumme of this Treatiſe in Verſe.

I the Lord ſay it, therefore it muſt be
My grace alone ſhall be enough for thee;
All that I ſay, I'le freely bring to paſſe
To thee, my love is as it ever was.

All

All promises as one I can with ease
Performe; ere World was made it did mee please
To make them, yet did never little misse;
Thou hast mine owne Hand for't, and Oath I wisse:
My Preachers, and my Christ confirme it too.
His death assures thee, that it must bee so.
My Spirits working is a further witnesse
The Promises are thine; not thy unfitnesse,
Nor Lawes strict Rigour can them dis-anull.
And that thy Comfort herein may bee full,

Th'are

Th'are

Th'are seal'd foure wayes, and in every age
Have beene made good 'spight Satan and mans rage;
Mine in most misery alwayes embrac't them
As their chiefe stay, what ever did distaste them.
A God most good I am, that give my word
Most willing, able, faithfull to afford
My promis'd help, am present every where,
And know all things; what need'st thou then to feare?
Wise, holy, just, all falsehood I abhorre;
I will observe, my providence workes for

Mine

Mine owne great glory and my Childrens aid,
By doing all as I before have ſaid,
I never change, neither ſhould be the Lord,
If that I ſhould not fully keep my Word.
Hugge Chriſt in every promiſe, for each one
Are yea amen, to thee in him alone.
It muſt, it ſhall be ſo, take thou but care
Thy ſelfe t'examine, and no ſinne ſpare,
Confeſſe, mourne for them all, with heart upright
Reſolve againſt them, and as in my ſight,

Study

Study

Study, pray, practise what may please mee best,
Let nothing more then sinne cause thee unrest.
To all my wayes see that thou have respect,
No holy duty wilfully neglect:
Fly every sinne, allow thy selfe in none,
Thine owne meere strength and wisdome rest not on,
Guidance and power comes from mee alone;
(Without these hold thy selfe a wretch undone)
Beg and by faith apply my mercies free,
Sure signes my promis'd grace belongs to thee;

But

But if thou live in sinne impenitent
Look for no good, therefore in time repent.
Of grace, through grace alone, all this must bee,
Naught, naught thou art, all grace in Christ from me.
And as thou would'st my promis'd comforts find,
These few rules following have still in thy mind.
To know, remember, and believe them all,
To weigh thy case, and what good word I shall Have spoken for thy comfort in that State,
Apply that home, rest on't at any rate.

Submit

Submit to mee, await my time and leisure,
And when my promis'd help it bee my pleasure
To let thee finde, say Lord thy name bee prais'd
For thine owne truth, eke let thy heart be rais'd
For each of these to pray me give thee grace,
And earnestly to seek my holy face,
That as thy need requires, and I have said,
Thou mayest in each obtaine effectuall aid.
Onely in Christ, else thy best workes unto thee,
Will onely heighten sinne, and more undo thee.

I the Lord say it, therefore it must bee,
My grace alone shall bee enough for thee.
All grace and good in generall for to grant thee,
That nothing can befall thee, which need daunt thee.
In all, eye Christ, or all is labour lost,
Get Christ, keep Christ in all, what e're it cost.
I'le cause thee know thy folly, sinne, and shame,
And eke in humble wise confesse the same,
Together with thy fathers faults and crimes
Which cry so loud for vengeance in these times.

And

And that to be cut off thou doſt deſerve
Becauſe from me ſo lewdly thou doeſt ſwerve.
I'le make thy ſtony heart, weep and relent,
With teares of godly ſorrow to repent,
All thy miſdeeds ſo odious great, and many,
I'le free forgive as if thou hadd'ſt not any,
With whom, when, where, how e're they have been done
They are to me, as if there were not one.
In and from Adams ſinne originall, Accurſed Blaſphemy ſo rife in all.

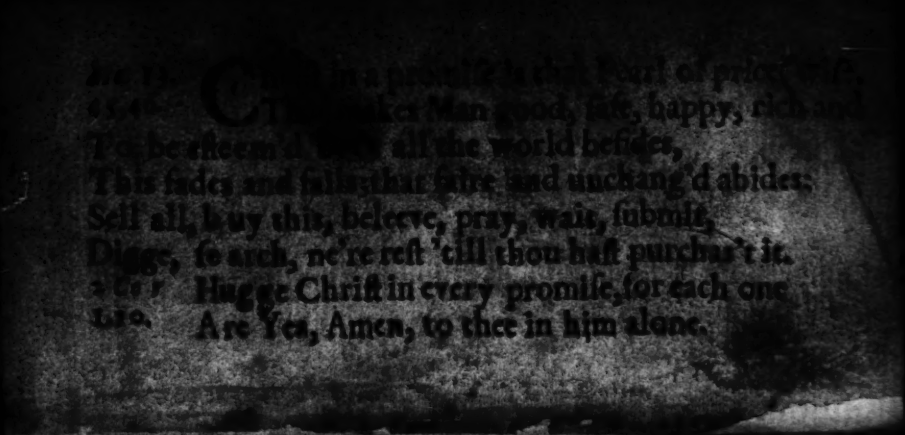
Horrid Idolatry, uncleanneſſe foul,
And wayes unjuſt moſt hurtfull to the ſoul.
Sinnes of ignorance not to be ſet light,
Raſh vowes, and oathes which ought thy ſoule affright,
Baſe lying, cozening, fraud, and robbery,
Violence cruell, fearfull perjury,
Theft every one, and all the reſt beſide
I pardon in my Chriſt, who for them dyed.
He quite clear from both guilt and punishment
Of greateſt faults in word, deed, and intent,

The 20th

Though I strike for them, I will use such measure
Thou shalt not feel my hand in sore displeasure.
My Christ's obedience, sufferings righteousnesse,
I doe impute, but not thy deeds graceless;
Though thou be filthy and must else be loathed,
Just I account thee, being with his robes clothed.
I covenant thy soule to me so sure,
That our most perfect peace shall ever dure.
[illegible] satisfied, my wrath appeased,
[illegible] I chide, but be with thee well pleased.

I'le mortifie thy grosse offences still,
And hide corruptions which thee yet inthrall:
I'le so forbidde, that though sinne must remaine,
Yet shall not any as a tyrant reigne.
I my Lords service, loathsome filthinesse,
Lewd pride, which plainly do expresse
The Devils image, all wayes of unright
Vaine worldly toyes misleading foolish wight.
Thy houshold sinnes so soundly I'le suppresse
As may procure thy conscience joy and peace.

Againe



Sell all, buy this, believe, pray, wait, submit,
Digge, search, ne're rest 'till thou hast purchas't it.
Hugge Christ in every promise, for each one
Are Yea, Amen, to thee in him alone.
